

National Professional Qualification for Middle Leadership (NPQML) - Programme Summary

NPQ@teachingschools is a unique partnership of eight teaching school alliances with a strong track record of delivering exceptional professional development. We have been awarded the NCTL licence to co-create and deliver a new and innovative middle leadership programme designed by experienced, current school leaders to develop the potential of the talented and motivated school leaders across our region.

Who is it aimed at?

This programme is aimed at early years, primary and secondary colleagues who are, or are aspiring to become, a middle leader with responsibility for leading a team such as subject leader, curriculum development lead or Key Stage leader.

Programme:

The NPQML programme takes up to 12 months to complete and involves:

- Twilight launch event for delegates and mentors
- 4 full day core training sessions
- Minimum of 1 delegate selected session (½ day)
- School based improvement project and case study (4500 words)
- Self-directed professional reading
- Individual leadership profiling
- Support from school based mentor
- ½ day assessment presentation
- Opportunity to gain credits (Bath Spa University)

During the programme delegates will develop their 7 leadership behaviours: commitment; collaboration; personal drive; awareness; respect; resilience and integrity.

In addition, delegates complete and collect evidence against 6 areas of study: leading with impact; increasing capability; working in partnership; strategy and improvement; teaching and curriculum excellence and managing resources and risk.

Where is the programme delivered?

Delegates can choose to access this programme at any of our 3 hubs:

- Bourneville Primary School, North Somerset
- Whitehall Primary School, Bristol
- Corsham Primary School, Wiltshire/South Gloucs

Cost:

£750 per delegate
(reduced to £600 for eligible schools - see application form)
